About the Author

Carolyn loves to walk with her furry explorers, Sky & Wags, the labradoodles. Inspired by her playful pups, Carolyn is sharing her adventures to spark curiosity on every path, big or small. When she's not writing, she works in marketing, with Sky and Wags by her side. Her husband, Wick, joins them on walks whenever he can, and doodles the 'doodles to unwind from his busy days as an advertising executive. Carolyn and Wick live near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania with Sky, Wags, and their two daughters. Their house is filled with laughter & barking, muddy paw prints, and endless reasons to smile. Follow @skyandwags on Instagram for Sky & Wags' adventures.
