Are drop-offs hard for your child and YOU?

Try these tips
and tricks:

1

Establish a consistent routine. i.e., help them hang up their coat, give one big hug, and say "Good-bye!"

2

Remember to say "good-bye." Whether at the car, in the room, or through the many reminders preparing for the day, it is an important part of the morning transition.

3

"Rip off the band-aid." Linger can prolong the child's struggle with separation. Establish a routine, make it quick and final.

4

Remember.... We got this! 😊 We are here to help distract, love, and support you both through this difficult transition! Your child is in good hands!
